

MANAGEMENT SYSTEM'S POLICY

WITZENMANN
DO BRASIL LTDA.
06/2024
Revision 05

Witzenmann do Brasil, manufacturer and supplier of technological solutions in Flexible Metal Elements for automotive and industrial application, plans, implements, maintains and improves its management systems, establishing actions according industry organizations, environmental, governmental, and general agencies, with the greater objective of meeting and surpassing, with each new project, the expectations of the clients, by:

- Provision of resources to comply with all legislation applicable to the environment, occupational safety and health, and other statutory requirements subscribed by the organization;
- Training of employees in their respective functions, so that they act in a way to guarantee the quality of the product supplied, respecting the environment, and using good practices of safety and health at work;
- Prevention of environmental pollution and the occurrence of occupational accidents and diseases, by means of awareness actions, both of employees, as well as of third parties and visitors in general, through the culture of safety and health along with consultation and participation of workers;
- Continuous improvement of processes, aimed at optimizing resources, increasing productivity and product quality, and reducing waste and risks to safety, health and the environment.